DESIGN EXCELLENCE

GOOD THINGS COME TO THOSE WHO WAIT DETAILS + DESIGN

In designing this kitchen, Details + Design wanted to take what was originally a poorly arranged space and turn it into something functional. The custom-built island serves as an anchor for the kitchen, designating it as a space separate from the living area adjacent to it. Different textures and colors throughout the kitchen complement and contrast with one another. However, overall, the design is cohesive and fresh. New floors add a touch of naturalness.
